

Community Roundtable: Downtown Neighborhoods

January 7, 2015

Join us and neighborhood leaders from Deep Ellum, Downtown, Farmers Market, and the Cedars to discuss community issues in Downtown neighborhoods at the Dallas Heritage Village on Wednesday, January 28 from 6:30pm to 8pm.

The neighborhoods in and around the Central Business District face common issues and challenges. What are those issues, and how can these neighborhoods work together to solve common problems?

Networking begins at 6:30pm, the panel discussion begins at 7pm, and the event will end at 8pm. The panel will be moderated by Peter Simek of D Magazine. Sean Fitzgerald of Deep Ellum, Crispin Lawson of Downtown, Tanya Ragan of the Farmers Market, and Mike Przekwas of the Cedars will join the discussion.

Feel free to join us at the in the Browder Springs Hall at the Dallas Heritage Village, our host for the event. Take part in a discussion that affects our Downtown neighborhoods. Please RSVP on Facebook if you choose to attend. The Dallas Heritage Village is located at 1515 S. Harwood St, just south of Downtown Dallas. Parking is free and available on site.
